CLASSROOM HIGHLIGHTS

THE ART OF PERSUASION

Eighth grade students have been learning about rhetoric. Students spent last week analyzing commercials for specific examples of ethos, pathos, and logos and discussing which technique they found most effective. They applied these strategies to "prove" who burned down Cheryl's She Shed from the State Farm commercial. Students presented their claims in small groups to Mrs. Flinn, Mrs. Congelio, and Sister Elizabeth Cooper, who evaluated the use of rhetoric in their presentations.

ARTIST IN RESIDENCE AT THE MALTZ MUSEUM VISITS IWA

Some of the prep students examined lesser known diaries of the Holocaust with artist in residence Susan Stein. These diaries were written by people their own age throughout Europe. Taking time to discuss how personal context shapes one's understanding of events, students participated in close reading of writings by those imprisoned and those liberated from the ghettos to foster empathy and help understand the stages that lead to genocide.

THE CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

This week our primary students joined Mrs. Hjort, our Director of Campus Ministry, during their Catechesis of the Good Shepherd class. Students learned how the Altar is prepared for Mass and were able to name the very special items we see each time we go to Mass. The Good Shepherd program fosters a sense of contemplation and joy by allowing the child to encounter Jesus and the Sacraments in a peaceful and well prepared space.
