NEWS FROM CAMP WARRIOR

from the desk of Mrs. Congelio

Ready, Set, Invent!

Camp Invention was a smashing success last week! Students entering K- grade 6 spent all week long exploring STEM concepts in hands-on ways, competing in design challenges, collaborating with others, and presenting their inventions. They created one of a kind light boxes, light-up game boards, and more! Thank you to Ms. Schram, our Camp Invent facilitator, teacher helpers Mrs. Shipley and Mrs. DeLuca, and a handful of IWA alumni who assisted with campers all week.

WELCOME, GABE KESSLER

Gabe Kessler

Director of Advancement and Admissions

We are very excited to introduce Mr. Gabe Kessler as the new Director of Advancement and Admissions at Incarnate Word Academy. Gabe has been working with Mrs. Heather Schmuhl since early June to ensure a smooth transition into this key role for IWA.

Gabe has a background in sales and marketing, and most recently worked for APG Office Furnishings as a Business Development Manager. Gabe earned a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from Ave Maria University in Florida and currently serves as the President of Young Catholic Professionals (YCP) in Cleveland. Gabe and his wife, Devany, reside in Avon Lake with their son, Gabriel, and are excited to welcome their second child in early December.

“I am very excited to join the IWA community and look forward to getting to know the students, parents, Sisters, faculty, staff, and alum of Incarnate Word Academy,” notes Gabe.

Gabe is a die-hard Cleveland sports fan and enjoys playing board games, exploring the Metroparks, playing a multitude of musical instruments, and spending time with his family. Gabe and his family attend St. Joseph Parish in Avon Lake.
